DETAILED ACTION

1. As a preliminary matter, the petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b) filed December 12, 2007 to revive the instant application has been granted by the Office of Petitions on Feb. 7, 2008.

Election/Restrictions

2. Applicant's election with traverse of Group I (claims 1-13) and species a, centrifugal force (claim 7), in the reply filed on December 12, 2007 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that the claims in the application involve related, overlapping subject matter, namely detecting biological analyte(s) and the search can therefore be directed towards the overall analyte detection. Applicant further argues that the application may be examined without undue search burden. This is not found persuasive because Restriction for examination purposes as indicated in the previous Office Action dated June 21, 2006 is proper because all the inventions listed in the action are independent or distinct for the reasons given previously (item 4 of the previous Office Action dated June 21, 2006). Further, there would be a serious search and examination burden if restriction were not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification (item 2 of the previous Office Action dated June 21, 2006); the inventions require a different field of search (for example, searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries); and the inventions are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and/or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph. Literature search for each method and apparatus/device is distinct since the structural requirements of each invention are different. While searches would be expected to overlap, there is no reason to expect the searches to be coextensive.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

3. Claims 1-20 are pending, claims 8, 9, and 14-20 have been withdrawn from consideration as a result of election of Group I and species a in the reply filed on December 12, 2007.

4. Upon further consideration of claim 6, the following supplemental election of species is required.

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

List: Analyte Bound Species

- A. Analyte bound to a particle (claim 6)
- B. Analyte forms a portion of a natural complex (claim 6)

The species are independent or distinct because claims to the different species recite the mutually exclusive characteristics of such species. In addition, these species are not obvious variants of each other based on the current record.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1-5, 7, and 10-13 are generic.

There is an examination and search burden for these patentably distinct species due to their mutually exclusive characteristics. The species require a different field of search (e.g., searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries); and/or the prior art applicable to one species would not likely be applicable to another species; and/or the species are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and/or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

The election of the species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the election of species requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected species.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the species unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other species.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141.

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
